Brief News Notes—People at Home and Abroad.

MONTEREY, FRIDAY JAN 23, 1920

Mrs. Robert Shumate, of McDowell is visiting her sister, Mrs. Pruitt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hiner, of Marlinton, spent Sunday night at the home of J. H. Mackey, Monterey.

Little Laura Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ralston, who has been ill is improving.

Mrs. Dorsey Freeman, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Robert A. Jones, who has been filling a position at Thornton, W. Va. is at home for a few days.

Virginia Patterson and Mary Stuart, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wade, have been on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Harold, of Hightown and Mrs. Mary Shultz and son, of Mill Gap, were among the shoppers in town latter part of the week.

Relatives here have learned of the birth of a little daughter to Dr. and Mrs. Geo. P. McCoy at their home in Baltimore.

Jos. B. Ralston, of the McDowell side, was in town Wednesday and called at the Recorder office to place his name on the "honor roll."

Mrs. J. W. Boyer, after spending some time here with her mother left Thursday for her home. She and her husband went to N. Y. to spend a few days.

Kent Gum left Thursday for Key West, Fla., from which port he will sail for Cuba. Mr. Gum has a position in Covington.

The three-day festival booked for Monterey next summer will prove a pleasing innovation, the first of many such in the county.

Ambrose and Charles Wimer of the Highland-Pendleton border, were here Monday transacting business connected with their father's estate.

The U. S. Tire Co., has a force of men placing two big advertising boards in this valley, one near the residence of J. Lee Hiner, west of town, and the other one at Vanderpool.

Mrs. Miller, stepmother of Mrs. V. B. Bishop, of West Va., has been critically ill and not expected to live. Mrs. Miller has a great many friends here, who will regret to hear of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Siron, of Lexington, Ill., announce the arrival of a little girl, Lena Bethel, Jan. 10th. Mr. Siron is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Siron, of the McKendree neighborhood.

Dr. Mary Fleming, who has been with Highland relatives for two weeks or more, left Wednesday for Pocomantas where she will visit a short time before returning to Baltimore.

A traveling man in town Tuesday was heard to make the sensational charge that the increasing theft of automobiles in the cities was due to unrest and dissatisfaction growing out of prohibition. He is undoubtedly like the Irishman of whom Mr. Echols spoke Monday night—"hopelessly twisted".

Harvey Ryder, of Vanderpool, who has been in ill health for some time and who was mentioned last week as growing suddenly worse on Thursday, has since rallied and his condition regarded as more hopeful. His daughter, Miss Maud, who is completing a course in nursing at the University Hospital, was summoned and reached her home on Saturday.

Up to this time the weather has brought numerous snow-falls, each designated a snow but all of them amounting to little in the aggregate. The ground was covered to a depth of an inch or two Monday morning, and while lasting only a day, sportsmen got busy and several foxes were bagged after lively chases. The fancy prices offered for furs this year, coupled with the music of hounds gives a zest to the chase and fur bearing animals are made to live hard.

At the suggestion of the county Chairman, I. L. Beverage, Rev. Mr. Echols, Pastor of Old Providence Presbyterian Church, Rockbridge county, is helping out the Prohibition Enforcement Campaign in Highland this week. Mr. Echols reached Monterey late Monday evening and was invited to address the audience assembled at the Methodist revival service, all agreeing that the subject was so closely allied to religion and the saving of mankind that such action was justifiable. He spoke for something like 35 minutes and showed that he had his subject well in hand.

Mr. Echols was a live wire in the 1914 prohibition campaign, and while he made no public claim to glory for the final victory, he was in a happy mood and rejoiced at the demise of Old John B.

He will make several points in the county, the second one being McDowell, where he spoke on Tuesday night.

FOR SALE—Buff Opington and Golden Laced Wyandotte Cockerels. Extra fine birds. R. H. Crummett, Monterey, Va., Rt. 1.

DOE HILL ITEMS

Jan. 19—As the item we prepared last week did not appear in this issue, we presume that the person to whom the letter was given, to carry it to the postoffice, is still carrying it. We shall try to give you some of the items, even if they should appear a little stale.

Mrs. Clara Jones, who had been visiting Mrs. Cleda Teter, of Fort Seybert, returned to Doe Hill last Monday and spent until Wednesday with Mrs. E. J. Beverage. She returned to Mt. Solon, where she expected to spend a few days with Mrs. Chas. Barr before going to Philadelphia to be with her mother, Mrs. McCarty.

Mrs. L. W. Shoulder returned to Richmond last Wednesday after spending two weeks with her mother Mrs. Maggie Jones.

The youngest child of Bucher Price who has been quite ill, is recovering. Virginia Snyder who had been with Mrs. Stover since last fall, returned last week to her home, near McKendree.

Doe Hill is to have a bank in the near future. Dr. Stover is the promoter, and had no trouble in securing the required number of stockholders. Mrs. J. F. Stover returned last Wednesday from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wimer.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Biggs, Jan. 10th, a son, and to M. and Mrs. John Samples, Dec. 23rd, a daughter. Supt. Robert Maury spent Wednesday night in the home of J. H. Armstrong and visited the school Thursday.

Miss Gertie Simmons and Clay Snyder were married January 7th by Rev. Josiah Beverage.

J. Riley Armstrong has gone to the Kings Daugher hospital for treatment.

Occasional.

Mrs. Irene Hevener
The remains of Mrs. Irene Hevener who died Monday near Lone Fountain were brought to her former home in the Hightown valley for burial. Mrs. Hevener is well remembered by many of our people. Her maiden name was Waybright, a daughter of the late Peter Waybright and she was twice married, her last husband being Jacob G. Hevener.

In recent years she had made her home in the Lone Fountain Community.

The Marriage Register for 1919

In looking over it we find that Rev. Geo. W. Staples is the marrying parson for the year, having spliced up 8, the Rev. H. W. Lindamood following as a very close second with 7. There were 32 marriages in all, in the county. This is keeping along pretty even, late years being considered.

Eight widowers and three widows were willing to try it again. One divorcee wife was willing to take another chance.

CRABBOTTOM

There is quite a crowd from here attending the sale of the Garnat Gum property on Stral Creek.

Mrs. Collins called on Davy Colaw last week.

Uncle Daniel Colaw was a visitor. We will let you hear later of the big fox chase on high knob Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullenax and Ed B. Wimer called on Mrs. Crummett, Wednesday.

James Hidy and Keifer Evick left Thursday for Akron Ohio where they get a position.

Robert Arbogast has measles in Akron, Ohio. His two sisters have been with him since last week.

Mesdames, Mary and Bessie Colaw Olie Mullenax and Hazel Colaw, spent a few hours with Mrs. Mary Lynn Wimer, who was right sick last week.

Miss Mona Mullenax left here Thursday for Cass W. Va., where she will be several weeks with her Aunt, Gertie Gum.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wimer was buried Friday. "Budded on earth to bloom in Heaven."

The wind has been fearful for a few days, blew down several hay stacks and made plenty of ice.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hammer and children with Mrs. Sadie Moyers went to upper North Fork where they will spend several days.

Finmore Simson, of Franklin, moved a lot of hogs from here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wagner and Mrs. Odie Will, motored to Strait Creek Saturday and spent the night with Morkwood Propst.

The teachers of our High School were on a strike Monday and Tuesday.

The editor made a mistake for me last week, it was Samuel Ralston and W. L. Chew instead of Simmons and Co. You see, men don't like to have their names changed, women never care.

Warren Hidy, Roy Hevener, Bob Wills and Pete Arbogast and Howard Wills started to Akron Monday. David and M. G. Colaw, Neal Wimer and some children are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Simmons, who are in Florida, say they are getting some fine spotted trout and liked the place they called home. There are many moving in there from other states.

Aunt Mary

The children of the town have been making a toboggan slide of the pavements, but most of that time the pedestrians could not have used them with safety, hence he took the middle of the street.

Monterey to Have Chautauqua

For the first time in its history Monterey will have a Chautauqua. H. Ralph Cady, of Washington, the Radcliff organizer, spent two days in town, leaving Tuesday, and during his stay perfected the necessary local organization, and the big event is now a certainty.

Mr. Cady was pleased with his reception here and, with comparatively small effort, secured more than the required number of guarantors.

Monterey is of course only a link in the large chain of meetings for the season and therefore cannot fix her own time, but Mr. Cady promised the guarantee committee that he would use his influence to have the chautauqua miss our hay harvest, a most important feature, not only as to its success but to the county people who undoubtedly will want to attend and enjoy it.

As stated in the beginning it will be the first chautauqua ever put on in Highland, and when the people learn the character of the entertainment—educating, amusing, elevating, entertaining, in fact a class of diversion and talent that can be brought to smaller towns and rural sections in no other way—they will look forward to it with a great deal of interest and enjoy it to the full.

Evangelistic Services

The series of meetings at the Methodist church, in progress for nearly two weeks, will continue throughout the present week and perhaps longer. Rev. Mr. Maxwell, who has been preaching, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Franklin and was detained until Monday. Rev. Mr. Staples, the pastor, preaching Sunday night.

Much of the time during the present week weather conditions have been very unfavorable, the street and pavements being a glit of ice at times but the attendance has kept up fairly well and the meeting is growing in interest. On Wednesday night, after an earnest appeal from Mr. Maxwell, three persons presented themselves at the altar and expressed their desire to lead a new life.

One purpose of the meeting has been to get a sort of religious census in line with the centenary movement and a number of persons signed cards pledging themselves for definite service, among the number being two young girls who offer themselves as missionaries. Still others, heads of families, have consented to join the family altar league.
